

Business manual

Stora Enso Skoghall AB

Stora Enso Skoghall Mill develops and manufactures paperboard products enabling our customers to produce attractive, safe and resource efficient packaging material. At manufacturing, usage and waste disposal our products are safe for man and the environment. Our business shall adhere to or outperform legislation and other demands.

Customer focus

We always put our customer in focus and are the customer's first choice. We are perceptive and develop new products together with our customers.

Business ethics

Long term profitability is essential to secure our future. Our business adheres to Stora Enso's Code of Conduct. We cooperate without prejudice or discrimination with our stakeholders.

Continuous improvements

We renew and improve our operation continuously. This includes our products, processes as well as our working practices.

Employeeship and leadership

All employee's knowledge and experiences are utilized and contributes to the development of Stora Enso Skoghall Mill. Diversity is considered to be strength. Employeeship and leadership ensures a sound and productive working climate. We continuously work for a safer working place. Safety will always take the highest priority in all situations.

Sustainability

We run and develop our operation in a sustainable way. This means a balance between financial, environmental and social responsibilities. Our products and processes' impact on the environment is taken into consideration from a holistic perspective. We commit ourselves to use fibres from a sustainable forestry, to minimize the impact on the environment from our industry and to minimize the usage of other resources considering the demands on the quality of our products.